

STUDY ABROAD AMBASSADOR

2020 - APPLICATION - 2021

Description:

Study Abroad Ambassadors are a volunteer organization of Mercer students, who after their return from a study abroad program, commit to become student leaders on-campus through outreach and promotion of Mercer's study abroad opportunities.

Responsibilities:

Study Abroad Ambassadors help advise Mercer students on international opportunities available at Mercer. They represent the Office of International Programs during in-person and online events including Study Abroad Week, Saturday Preview Days, UNV 101 classroom visits, etc., in order to promote education abroad opportunities.

Requirements:

- 📍 Study Abroad Experience:
Applicants must have completed at least one Mercer Abroad program (e.g. faculty-led, spring break, exchange, affiliate, or South Africa internship)
- 📍 Availability:
Able to assist the Office of International Programs on a volunteer basis for at least 2 hours/week.
Able to support at least two study abroad events during the semester (excluding events occurring during Study Abroad Week).
- 📍 Professionalism:
Commit to following university and office protocol regarding standards, policy, and procedure.
- 📍 Interest:
Passionate about contributing to an increasingly global society.
